

Domagoj I. Milošević
Chairman of the European Affairs Committee of the Croatian Parliament
The Croatian Democratic Union (HDZ)

- Born on 5th of January 1970 in Zagreb
- Married since 1998, two children

Education

- 2004 IEDC Bled School of Management, Slovenia, MBA Graduate 'Cum laude'
- 1988 - 1996 Zagreb University, Medical Faculty, Republic of Croatia
Graduate – Doctor of general practice
- 1984 – 1988 1st Zagreb Classical Gymnasium

Executive education

- 2016 US State Department, “US Foreign Policy and Energy Security“ International Leaders Programme
- 2013 Harvard Kennedy School “Leading economic growth” Programme

Professional career

- 2016 Re-elected as the MP
Parliamentary functions:
- Chairman of the European Affairs Committee
 - Member of the Finance and Central Budget Committee
 - Member of the Interparliamentary Cooperation Committee
 - Deputy Member of the Delegation to the Parliamentary Assembly of the Council of Europe
- 2015 – 2016 Re-elected as the MP
Parliamentary functions:
- Chairman of the Committee on the Economy
 - Member of the Finance and Central Budget Committee
 - Member of the Committee on Maritime Affairs, Transportation and Infrastructure
- 2011 - 2015 Elected as the MP
Parliamentary functions:
- Member of the Physical Planning and Development Committee
 - Member of the Committee on the Economy
 - Member of the Labour, Retirement System and Social Partnership Committee
 - Member of the Interparliamentary Cooperation Committee
- 2010 - 2011 Deputy Prime Minister of Croatian Government in charge of investments, supporting foreign and local investors, improving business and investment climate in Croatia and local legal framework
(This government finished negotiation process with EU in mid-2011)

Political career

December 2019	President of SME Global, part of International Democrat Union (IDU)
November 2018	Vice-president of Small and Medium Entrepreneurs of Europe (SME Europe, EPP)
April 2018	President of the Community of Entrepreneurs and Craftsmen of HDZ
May – July 2016	General Secretary of HDZ
2012 – 2015	HDZ's speaker on the economy and coordinator of six national committees on the economy, finance, energy and other
2012	Candidate for the president of HDZ

Business career

2000-2010	Medium size business Pastor Group – export oriented biggest producer of extinguishers in SEE.
2000	Acquired the oldest Fire Extinguisher Factory in South Eastern Europe – Pastor TVA d.d. - Transformed the company into a Group of companies in all ex-Yugoslav republics and Russian Federation, either through acquisitions or green field investments, covering whole range of fire protection and fire fighting products and services; - The flagship investments were Gasop Belgrade turned into fire truck production and Pastor Engineering became biggest fixed installation business in SEE.
1989 – 2000	Different small businesses - distributing vending machines and special refrigerators to Coca-Cola and Pepsi-Cola Import of pulp, paper and paper products into the Croatian market

Additional business activities

2005	Construction and Development Investment in real estate development and construction business through subsidiaries SIGMA
------	---

Other Activities

2009-2010	President of Supervisory Board of Croatian Employers Association and member of Business Advisory Council for South East Europe by Regional Cooperation Council
2008-2010	Member of Croatia's Prime Minister Economic Council on behalf of Croatian Exporters Association
2004 – 2010	Founding member of the "Croatian Exporters Association" and Executive Board member
Since 2005	Member of Young Presidents' Organization, world-wide business organization founded in 1950 with over 100.000 members

Foreign Languages

English – fluent
German – working knowledge
Russian - working knowledge